Friends of The Cora J. Belden Library High School Scholarship Application 2011

The Friends of the Cora J. Belden Library serves as a support and advocacy group interested in enhancing awareness of the importance of the role of the public library in the Rocky Hill community. Therefore, the Friends of the Library will award one $500 scholarship recognizing a student with strong academic achievement, school and community involvement and who demonstrates an understanding of the public library's mission and services.

Eligibility requirements

- applicant is a resident of Rocky Hill
- applicant is a high school senior graduating in June 2011
- applicant plans to enroll in post-secondary education in the fall of 2011
- applicant must hold a valid Rocky Hill library card

Selection criteria

Applications will be evaluated by a committee composed of members of the Friends Executive Board. Selection will be based on the following:

- academic record
- school and community involvement/work experience
- one faculty recommendation
- a 250-500 word essay on “Why our public library is important to me and my community” submitted on a separate page

Application procedure

Application forms are available at the Rocky Hill High School Guidance Department, at the Cora J. Belden Library and can be downloaded from our website.

Drop off or mail the completed application form, letter of recommendation, essay and a copy of your high school transcript in one envelope to:

Cora J. Belden Library
